

2017

History of Desegregation in West Virginia - Timeline 1

Ashley Porter

Follow this and additional works at: <https://researchrepository.wvu.edu/wvc>

Part of the Curriculum and Instruction Commons, Gender, Race, Sexuality, and Ethnicity in Communication Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

Porter, Ashley, "History of Desegregation in West Virginia - Timeline 1" (2017). West Virginia Connection. 3.
<https://researchrepository.wvu.edu/wvc/3>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Hidden Figures at The Research Repository @ WVU. It has been accepted for inclusion in West Virginia Connection by an authorized administrator of The Research Repository @ WVU. For more information, please contact ian.harmon@mail.wvu.edu.

Timeline for:

May ____ - the _____ Court ruled in Brown v.
Board of _____ that segregated schools were
_____.

September 16th - The _____ Independent newspaper declared that Greenbrier _____
segregation was to continue at the beginning of that school year.

May- There was a _____
with the West Virginia Club, assembling as an
_____ group and previous counties that were segregated opposed it.

1954

1955

_____ 7th - The _____ school board stated that "all Negro pupils will be admitted and _____ this school year in the school located within their respective residential areas."

_____ 4th- Is when _____ county schools employed an African American man to teach a class for children that had impaired _____.

July ____ - The _____
of West Virginia county schools held an annual conference at _____ Mill with that all counties that had not begun _____ should start at once.