IMPORTANT NOTICE. — The Editorial Board of the Law Quarterly invites the cooperation of the members of the bar or any other subscriber who might be in a position to help in restoring the completeness of its files of past issues of the Quarterly. There is a dearth of copies of the following numbers of the Quarterly: April 1929, Volume 35, Number 3; January 1921, Volume 27, Number 2. The Quarterly offers to buy back twenty-five copies of those numbers at fifty cents each. Any subscriber who has copies which he is willing to sell on these terms kindly communicate with the editor.
