WEST VIRGINIA BAR ASSOCIATION NOTES

The President and Executive Council of the West Virginia Bar Association announce with pleasure the establishment of permanent headquarters of the Association in the Capitol Building at Charleston. Two rooms adjoining the Supreme Court room have been secured for this purpose and are now being appropriately furnished. The location of permanent headquarters in Charleston has for some time been deemed desirable by the Executive Council and, it is believed, will enable the Association to be of further service to its members.

Stationery and stenographic service will be available in these offices and all members of the Association, as well as attorneys throughout the state, are cordially invited to avail themselves of these facilities while in Charleston.

The next annual meeting of the State Bar Association will be held at White Sulphur Springs on next September 9th and 10th. It is expected that many of the members will arrive at White Sulphur on Sunday, September 8th, in advance of the first meeting on Monday morning. An attractive program is being arranged by the committee in charge.

President D. J. F. Strother has recently announced that the Committee on Grievances and Professional Ethics of the West Virginia Bar Association will undertake to answer in the Quarterly questions submitted to it by members of the Association relating to professional ethics. Inquiries addressed to the Committee should be mailed to J. C. Morrison, Jr., Box 1208, Charleston, and the questions, together with the Committee's opinion, will be printed in the succeeding issue of the Quarterly.

For the convenience of members of the Association, and the Bar generally, the Secretary of the Executive Council has obtained from the Secretary of State a list of the new Circuit Judges, elected in November. The list is as follows:

The Executive Council of the West Virginia Bar Association requests that members of the Association forward to John C. Morrison, Jr., Box 1208, Charleston, West Virginia, any extra copies which they may have of the following issues of the proceedings of the West Virginia Bar Association: the years 1882-1902, inclusive; the years 1904-1907, inclusive. It is further requested that there be supplied to Mr. Morrison any surplus of the following issues of the proceedings of the American Bar Association: the years 1881-1904, inclusive; the years 1906-1907, inclusive; the years 1909-1912, inclusive.

Through the courtesy of the Supreme Court of Appeals and of the Board of Public Works, there has been made available to the West Virginia Bar Association and the Board of Law Examiners a room on the third floor of the East Wing of the Capitol Building opposite the entrance to the Office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals.

Through arrangements made with the Board of Public Works by the President of the Association and the members of the Executive Council the room has been furnished and is now available to members of the Association and other lawyers who may desire to use it as a conference room.

John J. Ingle, prominent member of the Doddridge County Bar, died at his home in West Union on September 17, 1928.
