

June 1928

West Virginia Bar Association

Follow this and additional works at: <https://researchrepository.wvu.edu/wvlr>

Recommended Citation

West Virginia Bar Association, 34 W. Va. L. Rev. (1928).

Available at: <https://researchrepository.wvu.edu/wvlr/vol34/iss4/8>

This Editorial is brought to you for free and open access by the WVU College of Law at The Research Repository @ WVU. It has been accepted for inclusion in West Virginia Law Review by an authorized editor of The Research Repository @ WVU. For more information, please contact ian.harmon@mail.wvu.edu.

Mr. Lester C. Hess of Mannington has been appointed to fill the position of Librarian during the summer.

ORDER OF THE COIF.—West Virginia Chapter of the Order of the Coif announces the election of the following members to the Order of the Coif:

Mose Edwin Boiarsky, Charleston, West Virginia
Fred Luther Davis, Parkersburg, West Virginia
Arlos Jackson Harbert, Clarksburg, West Virginia

Judge E. G. Smith of Clarksburg was elected an honorary member. These members were installed at a banquet given by the Chapter on June second, at which time Judge Smith gave the principal address.

WEST VIRGINIA BAR ASSOCIATION.—By its resolution the West Virginia Bar Association has provided that the president shall address the graduating class of the College of Law each year on the subject of The Bar Association.

Mr. Mason G. Ambler fulfilled this task this year by giving a carefully prepared and very interesting paper. Unfortunately space forbids its publication in full.

Mr. Ambler traced the history of the Bar Association, since its founding in July 1888, its contributions and disinterested service in legal reform, and its close association with the Law School. He urged the graduating class to assume the opportunities for service to their state offered by the Association.

To these remarks the editor wishes to add the appreciation of the faculty of the College of Law for the interest and cooperation of the Association during the past year. We know of no other bar association which so consistently supports high standards and high ideals in legal education. Its members understand and appreciate legal ideas and legal research, even though not directly connected with the problems which confront them in practice. Such an atmosphere in the bar is an encouragement and stimulation to the faculty of the Law School.

BAR EXAMINATION.—The following thirteen applicants successfully passed the State Bar Examination held in Charleston on March fourteenth and fifteenth:

Homer Blizzard, Dunbar
J. C. Cantrill, Williamson
M. T. G. Daugherty, Huntington
Charles T. Dodrill, Morgantown
George Lee Duncan, Jr., Clarksburg
L. Ebersole Gaines, Fayetteville
P. H. Garvin, Huntington
Erman L. Harrison, Wheeling
Lillian S. Robertson, Charleston
Irma W. Schaffer, Charleston
William L. Sheridan, Wheeling
Joseph W. Thomas, Charleston
Robert E. White, Huntington