Several requests received by the College of Law of West Virginia University either for complete lists of the statutes and acts of Virginia or West Virginia or for information respecting individual books, lead to the belief that some lawyers may be interested in having a list of the various legal publications of Virginia and West Virginia in the library of the College of Law. The list here published is not presented as a complete bibliography of the legal literature of the Virginias. There are probably few libraries that have a larger collection, but still it is far from complete, and without doubt individual lawyers own books not listed here. The pagination has been given wherever it is believed that it may be of service. The collection of briefs and records of cases decided by the Supreme Court of West Virginia, numbering about five hundred bound volumes, has not been included.
