specifications submitted to contractors for bids. A detailed description of the building with drawings and photograph will appear in the June QUARTERLY.

GRADUATING CLASS AT COLLEGE OF LAW.—The 1920 graduating class from the College of Law numbers sixteen, all of whom but one were in military service during the war. The one not in military service was incapacitated by reason of the previous loss of an arm. Two of the class were wounded and one received the Croix de Guerre. All but two or three of the class have decided upon their locations in West Virginia.

JUDGES HOLDING PRACTICE COURT AT UNIVERSITY.—During the second semester of the academic year Judge John T. Graham of Huntington, Judge Haymond Maxwell of Clarksburg, and ex-Judge J. C. McWhorter of Buckhannon have presided in the Practice Court and have delivered special law lectures at the University. Each was in attendance one week.
