REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSE TO PRACTICE LAW IN WEST VIRGINIA.

—At a regular term of the Supreme Court of Appeals, continued and held on the 16th day of September, 1924, the following order was made and entered, to wit:

Until otherwise provided, it is ordered, under Chapter 119, Section 1 of the Code, as follows:

1. Persons applying, on and after July 1, 1928, for a license to practice law in this State under the provisions of Section 1 of Chapter 119 of the Code, must satisfy the following requirements as to period of study and degree of preparation:

(1) A preliminary academic education equivalent to at least two years of study in a college.

(2) Three years of diligent law study as a resident student in a law school certified by the Association of American Law Schools as complying with the following standards:

(a) It shall require its students to pursue a course of three years' duration if they devote substantially all of their working time to their studies, and a longer course, equivalent in the
