LAW SCHOOL SERVICE FLAG.—On May 24th, a service flag was dedicated at the College of Law in honor of students of the College of Law who enter military service. The fifty-two stars at present on the flag represent students registered in the College of Law at or since the commencement of the war who have left their law studies and entered either the army, the navy, or aviation. It does not include the far larger number of law graduates and former law students who have also entered military service. Presentation of the flag was made by the donor, Miss Elizabeth Stone-
