next annual meeting of the Association, which will be held at Elkins, Randolph County. Elkins is an ideal place for the annual meeting. The Coal and Coke and Western Maryland Railroads connect it with the balance of the state. The Randolph County Bar have long been noted for their hospitality, and are planning to take care of the largest meeting the Bar of the State has ever had.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS AT ELKINS.—Members of the Association planning to attend the Elkins meeting should notify the Randolph County Bar Association Entertainment Committee, well in advance, to the end that suitable hotel accommodations may be provided for all. The Committee is composed of H. G. Kump, Esq., D. H. Hill Arnold, Esq., and C. O. Strieby, Esq., all of Elkins.

DELEGATES TO NATIONAL SECURITY LEAGUE.—The Chairman of the Executive Committee appointed the following delegates to represent The West Virginia Bar Association at the Congress of National Service held at the Hotel La Salle, Chicago, Illinois, on February 21, 22, and 23, 1918: J. R. Marcum, Esq., Huntington; M. G. Ambler, Esq., Parkersburg; Hon. F. W. Nesbitt, Wheeling.

EARLY BAR ASSOCIATION PROCEEDINGS.—The Executive Council has directed the Secretary to secure copies of the early proceedings of the Bar Association and to have several sets bound for the Library of the Association. The Library is short copies of the proceedings from 1887 to 1905. The Secretary will appreciate it very much if any of the members of the Bar having copies of the proceedings for these years, and wishing to part with the same, will kindly mail them to him at Charleston, W. Va.

NECROLOGY.—The following members of the bar have died since the January number of the LAW QUARTERLY was issued: W. P. Robinson, Esq., of Wheeling, Ohio County; S. L. Webb, Esq., of St. Albans, Kanawha County; W. H. Griffith, Esq., of Keyser, Mineral County; and Senator Robert L. Gregory, of Parkersburg, Wood County. At the time of his death Senator Gregory represented the Third Senatorial District in the West Virginia Legislature.

SESSIONS OF SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.—The Supreme Court of Appeals will reconvene in regular term at Charleston, Kanawha County, on April 9, 1918, for the hearing and disposal of cases, and will sit until final adjournment of the term about the first of June.

JUDICIAL APPOINTMENT.—Judge W. L. Lee of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit (Fayette County) resigned on March 1, 1918.
