WEST VIRGINIA'S REPRESENTATIVES—AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION.—The West Virginia Bar established a most creditable attendance record at the 44th annual session of the American Bar Association held in Cincinnati on August 31, September 1, 2, 1921, when thirty-nine members were present and voting. The proximity of the place of meeting, Cincinnati, of course had much to do with this record-breaking attendance. However, this high water mark should be excelled next year at the 45th annual session.

Those present this year found the sessions highly inspirational and the social features exceedingly pleasant notwithstanding the prevailing heat of the Queen City at the time. For the first time in many years the Chief Justice of the United States was present and participated in the debates of the session.
